Woman pulled from inside overturned vehicle in Kapa'a stream

KAPA'A – On Monday afternoon, a 70-year-old Wailua woman was pulled from her vehicle, which was found overturned in a Kapa'a stream off of Kamalu Road.

According to a preliminary report, a vehicle was found overturned in the Kalama Stream off of Kamalu Road just north of Wailua Homesteads around 1:45 p.m.

The vehicle, a 2013 Honda Accord, was heading northbound on Kamalu Road when the operator lost control and struck the right side of the bridge before overturning into the stream.

The operator, who was the only occupant of the vehicle, was extricated by responding police officers and fire personnel. She was transported to Mahelona Hospital in critical condition.

She has since been transferred to Wilcox Memorial Hospital where she remains in critical condition.

At this time, speed and alcohol do not appear to be factors in the crash.
